

Chapter 19 Review: Comparing the Worlds of North + South

Across

2. the South grew the cotton, and the North turned it into these
7. person who made his money by owning factories
9. the clearing away of forests
10. these people were coming to America and settling in the North
11. The number of these grew as cotton farming expanded west
12. Used to power machinery from the 1830's onward
13. machine that separated seeds from cotton
14. huge farms that usually relied upon slave labor
15. person who favors a life based on farming

Down

1. these were far more extensive and connected in the North
3. inventor of the cotton gin
4. many northerners were moving from farms into these
5. Cyrus McCormick invented this to help help cut and harvest grain
6. In the South, these were wide, flat, and slow-moving
7. the shift from making things by hand to making them with machines
8. These were used to carry and transport goods in the South